Ontario Special Bursary Program

WHAT IS THE ONTARIO SPECIAL BURSARY PROGRAM?

The Ontario Special Bursary Program (OSBP) is a student financial aid program that offers bursary assistance to help cover your educational costs. You are eligible for such assistance if you are taking postsecondary courses on a part-time basis because you are unable to attend school full time and you have a low family income. You may also be eligible to receive a bursary if you have a low family income and are taking postsecondary courses on a full- or a part-time basis to upgrade your academic skills. The bursary does not have to be repaid if you complete the course(s) in which you register.

HOW MUCH MONEY CAN I GET?

The maximum bursary amount you can receive is $2,500 per academic year. The bursary may cover tuition and other compulsory fees and may provide an allowance for books, equipment, and local transportation. Help with child-care costs may also be available.

Note: If you have extra education-related expenses resulting from a disability, you may also be eligible for the Ontario Bursary for Students with Disabilities. Contact the financial aid office at the college or university you plan to attend for more information.

WHAT CONDITIONS APPLY?

You cannot receive an OSBP and a loan through the Ontario Student Assistant Program (OSAP) at the same time. Contact the financial aid office at the college or university you plan to attend for more information.

If you leave school or drop a course, you will be required to repay a portion of the bursary. You are not entitled to the full amount if you do not finish your course as planned. If a portion of your tuition fees is to be refunded by your school, the refund will be paid to the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities in order to reduce the amount you have to repay. Ontario Special Bursary assistance is taxable. If you receive a bursary, you will receive a T4A form in February, which will indicate the total amount of bursary assistance you received.

AM I ELIGIBLE?

You are eligible for the Ontario Special Bursary if you:

- are a Canadian citizen, permanent resident, or Protected Person as defined in the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (Canada).
- · are an Ontario resident;

You are considered to be an Ontario resident if you have lived in Ontario for 12 months in a row up to the beginning of your program of study. If you have been living in Ontario only for the 12 months preceding your program of study and you were attending a postsecondary institution during this 12-month period, you are not considered a resident of Ontario.

- have a low family income;
- are not receiving assistance through OSAP;
- are taking postsecondary courses on a part-time basis;

"Part-time" means you are taking less than 60 per cent of a full course load. Usually, you can find out the number of courses or credits that make up a full course load by checking your school calendar. Once you know how many courses or credits make up a full course load, you can figure out whether you are taking less than 60 per cent. For example:

- If 5 courses are considered a full course load, then 3 courses are 60 per cent  $(3 \div 5 \times 100 = 60)$ .
- If 30 credits are considered a full course load, then 18 credits are 60 per cent ( $18 \div 30 \times 100 = 60$ ).

In some cases, factors other than courses or credits are used to determine your course load. Contact the financial aid office at the college or university you plan to attend for information if you are unable to figure out your course load.

- are taking postsecondary courses on a full- or a parttime basis to upgrade your academic skills;
  - Check with the financial aid office at the college or university you plan to attend to find out if the courses you plan to take are approved.
- · are taking a course that is at least four weeks in length;
- are taking a course that leads to a certificate, diploma, or degree.

HOW DO I APPLY?

To apply, fill out the attached application form carefully. Then contact the financial aid office at the college or university you plan to attend to make an appointment to discuss your application.

Bring your completed application and all supporting documentation to the appointment.

Your application must be received by the financial aid office within the first 30 days of your study period start date.
