Indigenous Learning Outcomes

knowledge to career field • Pimatisiwin principles • Justice • Pimatisiwin principles • Traditional dispute to justice • Pimatisiwin principles • Traditional dispute • Traditional dispute • Traditional dispute • Traditional dispute • Traditional dispute • Pinciples • Paricultural displacement of Indigenous communities • Reidential school experiences • Apricultural displacement of Indigenous community families • Self-determination principles • Self-determination principles • Connection between land and identity 21. Contrast preceptions of colonial policies to context progray Indigenous settimes of Indigenous settimes • The Anishnabe Soven and Identity • Appreciate the importance of historical context • Values lifelong learning • Values li	Outcome	Knowledge	Skills	Attitudes impact of colonialismdecolonizationcolonialismhistorical contextand contribute to your communitiesMarginalization and disposession of Indigenous communitiesRelate colonial policies to contemporary indigenous contextsRecognize and respect people's diversityand Contribute to your communityResidential school experiencesResidential school exper	principles of Indigenous knowledge to	 Decision-making by consensus Pimatisiwin principles Justice Traditional dispute resolution 	 North American Indigenous and Western worldviews 1.2. Investigate Indigenous approaches to decision making 1.3. Compare Indigenous and Euro-Canadian approaches to justice 1.4. Examine traditional approaches to health and wellness 1.5. Relate principles of Indigenous knowledge to 	 historical context Recognize and respect people's diversity Openness to individual differences Be socially responsible and contribute to your community Willingness to learn relationship between land and identity within Indigenous societies The Anishnaabe Seven Grandfather Teachings Connection between land and identity Relate examples of oral tradition of Indigenous people in relation to the land Investigate the significance of traditional ecological knowledge Demographics: local, regional, provincial, national Indigenous views of inclusion and diversity Colonialism, settler governments and immigration Multipulturalign in Canada Multipulturalign in Canada Multipulturalign in Canada Multipulturalign in Canada 	impact of colonialism on Indigenous	 decolonization Marginalization and dispossession of Indigenous communities Residential school experiences Agricultural displacement of Indigenous farming families Self-determination 	 colonialism 2.2. Relate colonial policies to contemporary Indigenous contexts 2.3. Analyze examples of assimilationist policies in relation to Indigenous families 2.4. Analyze contemporary assertions of Indigenous sovereignty, self- determination and 	 historical context Recognize and respect people's diversity Openness to individual differences Be socially responsible and contribute to your community Willingness to learn Indigenous and Canadian perceptions of inclusion and diversityregional, provincial, nationaldiversity from an Indigenous perspectivehistorical context• Indigenous views of inclusion and diversity• Indigenous views of inclusion4.2. Analyze Canadian perceptions of inclusion and diversity• Colonialism, settler governments and immigration4.3. Explain the effect of Canada's multicultural policies on Indigenous people• Be socially responsible and contribute to your community	relationship between land and identity within Indigenous	among Indigenous societies • The Anishnaabe Seven Grandfather Teachings • Connection between land	 responsibility to community development 3.2. Create a code of ethics based on the Anishnaabe Seven Grandfather Teachings 3.3. Relate examples of oral tradition of Indigenous people in relation to the land 3.4. Investigate the significance of traditional ecological 	 historical context Recognize and respect people's diversity Openness to individual difference Be socially responsible and contribute to your community Willingness to learn
Social change 4.4. Examine theories of social change Villingness to learn Values lifelong learning	Indigenous and Canadian perceptions of inclusion and	 regional, provincial, national Indigenous views of inclusion Colonialism, settler governments and immigration Multiculturalism in Canada 	 diversity from an Indigenous perspective 4.2. Analyze Canadian perceptions of inclusion and diversity 4.3. Explain the effect of Canada's multicultural policies on Indigenous people 4.4. Examine theories of social 	 historical context Recognize and respect people's diversity Openness to individual differences Be socially responsible and contribute to your community Willingness to learn

Indigenous Learning Outcomes

Outcome	Knowledge	Skills	Attitudes
5. Analyze racism in relation to Indigenous peoples	 Government legislation Constitutional recognition of Indigenous peoples The Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms Representation and the media The meaning of privilege 	 5.1. Investigate the concept of racism 5.2. Analyze legislation and government policies related to racism 5.3. Examine current and historical examples of racism in relation to Indigenous peoples 5.4 Examine common misrepresentations of Indigenous people 5.5. Analyze the concept of privilege 	 Appreciate the importance of historical context Recognize and respect people's diversity Openness to individual differences Be socially responsible and contribute to your community Willingness to learn Values lifelong learning
6. Generate strategies for reconciling Indigenous and Canadian relations	 Political discourse between Indigenous people and various levels of government Political advocacy by Indigenous leaders and communities Truth and Reconciliation Commission Approaches to Indigenous community development and partnerships 	 6.1. Describe current formalized approaches to reconciliation 6.2. Analyze the effects of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada 6.3. Distinguish between self-determination and self-governance 6.4. Formulate strategies towards the reconciliation of Indigenous and Canadian relations 	 Appreciate the importance of historical context Recognize and respect people's diversity Openness to individual differences Be socially responsible and contribute to your community Willingness to learn Values lifelong learning
7. Formulate approaches for engaging Indigenous community partners	 Indigenous community organizations Ethical approach to working with Indigenous communities Individual and community needs Alternative approaches that reflect community development principles 	 7.1. Examine local community organizations and resources 7.2. Analyze Indigenous community partnerships 7.3. Examine approaches for working with Indigenous communities 7.4. Prepare a principled approach to working with Indigenous partners 	 Appreciate the importance of historical context Recognize and respect people's diversity Openness to individual differences Be socially responsible and contribute to your community Willingness to learn Values lifelong learning

